CINCINNATI, WEDNESDAY, JUNE 22.

Local News.

MECHANICS are advised that proposals will be received until Monday, June 27th, to repair the Sixth District Schoolhouse.

THERE is a large list of assistant teachers of the Cincinnati Public Schools, to be nominated for the ensuing school year. The trustees and visitors of the respective districts will report their nominations on next Monday night.

A PELLOW named Joseph Kennedy, for appropriating to himself an ax, the property of another person, was, yesterday, before the Police Court, and was sentenced to be imprisoned in the county jail for the term of two months.

THE exciting subject of opening Linn street, from Eighth to Court streets, has been transferred from the City Council's Chamber, to the Courts of law. A suit against the city, involving rights of some of the parties owning adjoining property, will commence this week.

It is quite a loss from the Committee on Claims of the School Board, the resignation of Mr. Nelson Speer, of the 16th Ward. Last night the School Board unanimously elected Lemuel H. Sargent, to fill his unexpired time.

There are arguments in favor and decided objections to a custom long practised in this city for teachers to vend text books to pupils during school hours. Last night this privilege was declared-by School Board-to be termi-

A MAN named John Patterson, charged with robbing the United States Mail, was arrested a day or two since at Cambridge, Guernsey county. Yesterday morning he was committed by Commissioner Newhall, of this city, to answer before the U. S. District Court.

THE regular exercise of the Musical classes have been suspended, during the exhibitions now going on, in the Public Schools. Those partial to these literary re-unions of parents and pupils, should visit, to-morrow afternoon, the school of D. Huff, on Franklin street, or that of the Eighth District, on west 8th street. Besides those noted for Thursday we hear of exhibitions at Second District, on Sycamore street, above 5th street; also at the Twelfth

Golden Wedding.

On the 3d inst., Abraham and Effy Ann Wombaugh, (parents of three of the members of the firm of Wombaugh Brothers & Co., of our city) surrounded by their offspring, numbering 22, and a few select friends, celebrated the completion of the Golden Cycle of their wedded life; the happy group surrounded a table spread with the luxuries of the season, a profusion of the good things of this life. On the center of the table stood & large and richly ornamented wedding cake, with two hearts so constructed as to be inseparable, and emblematically checkered so as to represent the cares and anxieties of life, equally borne by the united head of the family; and on its outer edge, in scrip letters, was, "Abraham Wombaugh and Effy Ann Bloom were married, June 3d, 1809."

After some remarks, suited to the occasion, by the Rev. C. Swain, and the singing of an appropriate family ode, the following sentiments were offered:

1. By Dr. P. K. Wombaugh : The Day to-Celebrate-The golden nuptials of our parents —the stay of our youth and guide of our riper years. May the evening of their lives be bril-liant with the reflected rays of the sun of righteousness.

2. By A. B. Wombaugh: Father-Mother Words of heavenly origin—names our artless tongues first tried to lisp. May some kind angel whisper those names in our ears, in the dim misty hour of death, and cheer us by the recollection of the fervent prayers, good counsel, and godly examples of our father and mather.

3. By M. M. Wombaugh: Father-May your declining years be your happient, and life's rugged path be smoothed by the awest consolations of religion, as you approach the cold stream of death, where you leave all cares of earth with this mortal coil; and may the rustling of angels' wings awaken you to the enjoyment of a happier life in another and a better world.

4. By Elias Heathman, (husband of the only surviving daughter:) Our Parents—Are of the happy few that have lived fifty years without a breach in the matrimonial home. 5. By Ira B. Wombaugh:

As passed the gentle zephyr, So our sainted dead; Througing memories cluster As their names we read.

Remarks pertinent to the occasion, and to the several sentiments announced, were made by those offering them; all of which were mos felicitously responded to by their silveryheaded sire. The exercises were ended by prayer offered by the Rev. M. T. Bowman. The bridegroom was 72 and the bride 69. So passed the golden wedding, an event in the lives of U ose present never to be forgotten.

OUR Police force, of which Mayor Bishop has control, numbers 161 men. They yester day met him in their best apparel, and on parade showed thomselves a band of men on whom it would appear he may depend. Capt. Lewis Wilson is Chief of Police. He has six Lieutenants, three detectives and eight station-house keepers. Eight watchmen in seventeen Wards make a total of 136 sen, besides six canal and river Police. After the Lieutenants had paraded the force for review in front of the Mayor's office, they marched into the Council Chamber, where the Mayor called their attention to the book of rules and regulations, with which all are furnished, which he gave them explicitly to understand, will be rigidly but kindly enforced. Any one accepting his appointment does it with the understanding that he will be summarily dismissed, if the Mayor is satisfied that the rules have been disobeyed, He admonished them that his own eye would be unexpectedly observing them. He designs making it imperative that all the police must wear their blue regulation suit while on duty. The Mayor seems to be earnestly desirous of having good men and require good service.

CITY IMPROVEMENTS,-The Board of Improve ments was in session yesterday morning, and transacted the following business: Lowry & Humphries were granted sixty days further time to bowlder Augusta street. The Civil Engineer presented the following estimates: For bowldering Stark street, from Dunlap to Plum street, an assessment of $1 64 per front foot is required; for bowldering Race street from Liberty to Green, an assessment of $1 43 per front foot is required; for bowldering Thirteenth street, from Vine to Race, an assessment of $1 03 per front foot is required; for Macadamizing Brown Street, from Hamilton Road to Byron street, an assessment of 88 cents per front foot, is required. The Clerk was directed to transmit to Council ordinances assessing the required tax.

The Commissioner of the North district was authorized to repair the Culvert under Western Row, at a cost not to exceed $13 85. The contract for building a bridge over the Canal at Liberty street, was awarded to George Stacy. It is to be a wrought Iron Lattice Bridge, similar to the one recently placed over the White Water Canal, at Smith street. The price to be two thousand and fifty dollars.

Won'r Fight .- For a few days past, expectation has been on tip-toe, in regard to an anticipated duel between the Hon. Garrett Davis and Capt. Simms, both of Kentucky, and rival candidates for Congress. It seems, however, that through the inteference of influential friends, the difficulty between these gentlemen has been amicably adjusted, and in a manner perfectly satisfactory to all concerned.

Mysterious Jenny, well known to the police as a pick-pocket and general thief, was two charges-one of vagrancy, and one of carrying concealed weapons. He will have a hearing to-day before Judge Lowe.

ing, a porter at the Clermont house, on Broadway, near Lower Market street, decamped with a full suit of clothes and a gold watch, belonging to a son of the landlord. He has not been arrested. THOMAS RYAN, an ex-constable of the 13th

A DISHONEST SERVANT .- Yesterday morn-

Ward, was yesterday fined $20 and costs in the Police Court, on a charge of selling liquor on Sunday. The fine, with the costs, amounted to $46. He refused to pay that amount and was sent to jail. THE celebration of the Fourth of July at the Tippecance Battle Ground, by the citizens of Lafayette, will doubtless be a grand affair. The Rover Guards of this city have accepted an invitation to be present.

THE accurate and authentic Map of the Seat of War in Europe, published by Mack R. Barnitz, is having a large sale. It should be in the hands of every one.

[Communicated. INDIANAPOLIS, June 20th, 1859. TO THE EDITOR OF THE "DAILY PRESS Dear Sir :- Encouraged by your solicitation for correspondence, however unworthy min may be considered, I make my bow. I ar taking the "Daily Press" since the advent of your indefatigable Agent here, and although I do not endorse all its sentiments, still I con-sider it an admirable sheet, and a very laudable undertaking. You have conclusively and successfully proved that a daily paper is not an institution devoted exclusively to the benefit of the wealthy, but one, the acquisition of which is within the means of the poor, and great praise is due to you for an enter-prise which, with a little judicious manage-ment, could be made, emphatically, the "People's Paper." I am deeply interested in its welfare—hence I would most respectfully sug-gest the adoption of one improvement, which in my opinion would be a desideratum, and acceptable to a large class of readers, who cannot avail themselves of other dailies—and that is to make it more "gene-ral" than "local" in its views. Unless I am greatly mistaken, to make it acceptable to the general reader, was its first intention ; hence any other course would materially neutralize its good effects, and would be an erroneous, if not suicidal policy.

I was much pleased with your graphic description of the Smith O'Brien testimonial. It reflects immortal honor upon the generous reflects immortal henor upon the generous de-nors, and the ingenious conception and artistic execution of Mr. N. R. Harris. It is a noble gift, and bestowed upon one of the purest, most disinterested and magnanimous of living patriots. Happy in its design, it is national to the core, and "Treason" lurks in its device. May the day be not far distant when it will be converted into a "Chair of State "

"Under that dome which wrung With freedom's accents from a Grattan's tongue," from which the descendant of "Brien the brave" will administer the laws to a free peo-ple when Ireland shall be

"Great, glorious and free, First flower of the earth, and first gem of the sea! But, Mr. Editor, I am taking up too much of your room. At another time (if this suits you.) I may give you the haps and mishaps here. In the meantime, farewell, thou unmercinary patriot; for, while others are striving to carry off our dollars, you are content to take our pennies; and, as a reasonable treatment, you may at any time bid "a cent for the thoughts" of your's to command, M. Downey.

REPORTED FOR THE DAILY PRESS. One Day Later from Europe

ARRIVAL OF THE KANGAROO.

Occupation of Milan by the Allies Pavia Evacuated by the Austrians.

SANDY HOOK, June 21 .- The steamship Kan garoo is off this point. She is expected to bring advices from London and Liverpool, one day later by telegraph to Queenstown. Herday of sailing was the 8th inst., the same as the Anglo Saxon, arrived at Quebec.

LIVERPOOL, June 9.—The cotton market closes quiet with the quotations barely main tained. The sales to day are estimated at 5,500 bales. Breadstuffs continue dull. LONDON, June 9.—Consols are quoted at 93\2(6.93\%. The bullion in the Bank of England has increased £160,000 during the week.

SANDY HOOK, June 21 .- The dispatches reeived from the Kangaroo are as follows: The steamship Vigo had arrived out.
The Emperor Napoleon and the King of Sardinia had entered Milan, and were enthusiastically received by the population.

The Austrians have also evacuated Pavia.

The Austrians left Milan on the 5th instant the Austrians left Atlan on the 5th install, the municipal functionaries retiring to Verona There was a partial decline of Consols in London, occasioned by a rumor that the allies had received a severe check in Italy.

The absence of news from Paris caused con-siderable sgitation on the London Exchange. The Paris Bourse had declined I per cent.

The municipality of Milan in their address to Victor Emanuel, delivered in the presence of the Emperor Napoleon, says: "The munici-pality of Milan are proud of being able to use its precious privilege in being the interpreter for their fellow citizens at this great crisis. They are willing to renew the compact of 1848, and to proclaim again before the Italian nation the great fact which has required eleven years for full development in the intelligence and beart of the people. The annexation of Lombardy to Piedmont is the first step in the new way of public right which allows nations to be free to dispose of their own destinies. The heroic Sardinian army and our brave allies, who insist upon Italy being free as far as arrested yesterday by Lieutenant Small on the Adriatic, will soon achieve their magnani mous enterprise."

Further details of the battle of Magenta has been received at London by telegraph. A Vienna dispatch says: Among the wounded at the battle of Magenta are Baron Reisebach, three Generals, three staff officers two staff officers missing, and one Majo

A Turin dispatch of June 7th, says : "There were 120,000 Austrians in the battle, of whom 20,000 were placed hors du combat, and 7,000 prisoners. The French lost only 5,000 killed and wounded. Among the killed are Generals Espeanasal and Clere.
Receive, Sire, the homage of the town of Milan at our hands, and believe that our hearts belong entirely to you. Our cry is: 'The King and Italy forever.'" A dispatch from Trieste says: "An Austrian war-steamer has captured the French ship Raoul, from Cubs, bound to Trieste."

The Latest.

It is rumored that Gen. Canrobert has died Gen. D'Augeley, commander of the Imperial Guard, had been created Marshal.

Napoleon is said to have been in the midst of the Imperial Guard during the stand of two hours made against the Austrians, who, it appears, were aware of the fact. The loss of the Austrians is estimated from

The loss of the Austrians is estimated from 13,000 to 14,000.

A Turin dispatch dated June 7, says:
The first private letter from the battle field of Magenta has been received. The Imperial and Sardinian Guards were alone opposed to the Austrian masses. They were attacked by the Austrians, and were unable to advance, but reconstituted in the Austrian for the Austrian masses.
